Seniors Be Alert!

More cases of senior citizens extorted using fake accidents as ruse emerging

71 yr. old forced to pay Rs. 61,500

Mysuru, Sept. 23 (RK&BCT)- Fake accident extortion gangs continue to operate in Mysuru city with scant fear of the law, targeting vulnerable senior citizens driving alone.

On Aug. 22, a 71-year-old Brindavan Extension resident (name withheld on request) fell victim to such a scam in broad daylight. Around 10.50 am, the senior citizen was returning home after dropping his wife at Surya Bakery Circle in Hebbal in his Wagon-R car. After passing High-Tension Road and Trinethra Circle, he stopped near a fish stall to buy fish. As the vendor was absent, he decided to wait inside his car.

Suddenly, a youth — around 27-28 years old — opened the car door and sat in the front passenger seat. Before the shocked senior citizen could react, the youth, identifying himself as 'Ravi' and speaking in Urdu-mixed Kannada, accused him of causing an accident near Vidyavardhaka College by driving recklessly.

The youth claimed that his friend was grievously injured and demanded Rs. 4 lakh for treatment. When the senior citizen firmly denied any involvement, the accused snatched his mobile phone and demanded money.

The terrified victim handed over Rs. 1,500 cash from his wallet. Sensing his fear, the youth escalated his threats, abusing him and warning that he would summon a crowd to set the car on fire unless more money was paid.

The senior citizen was then forced to share his banking code. Under duress, he transferred Rs. 30,000 online. Not stopping there, the youth coerced another transfer of Rs. 30,000, bringing the total extortion amount to Rs. 60,000 online and Rs. 1,500 in cash.

After collecting the money, the youth fled. The victim lodged a complaint at V.V. Puram Police Station. A case has been registered and investigation is on.

Senior citizen outsmarts fake accident conman

Mysuru, Sept. 23 (BCT)- Just two days after a terrified senior citizen fell victim to extortionists faking a grievous accident at Dattagalli on Sept. 18 — where he was coerced into paying Rs. 85,000 — another elderly man narrowly escaped a similar scam in Vijayanagar 3rd Stage on Sept. 20.

This second incident demonstrates that these criminals are expanding their network beyond specific areas of the city, targeting regions with high population density. Alarming as it is, these scams are happening in broad daylight, leaving residents shaken.

BRINGING GLOBAL EDUCATION HOME: Based on the University Grants Commission's recommendations, the Ministry of Education has handed over twelve letters of intent to top foreign Universities to establish their campuses in India during the last year. One UK University campus has already opened its doors in Gurugram, launching its academic programmes for the 2025-26 academic session, with the remaining Universities setting up their campuses in Bengaluru, Chennai, Mumbai and the National Capital Region. The fact that world-class Universities are establishing their physical campuses in India shows our conscious policy realignment. It opens new opportunities for Indian students and expands our educational horizons in ways we could hardly imagine a decade ago.

The beginning point for this development is a regulation introduced by the University Grants Commission (UGC) in 2023. The idea is to allow top-ranking foreign Universities to establish campuses in India with operational autonomy and regulatory clarity. The UGC took this calibrated decision to align with the vision of the National Education Policy (NEP) 2020. At its core, NEP 2020 calls for re-imagining higher education to be globally competitive while remaining locally rooted. Facilitating the establishment of global University campuses in India constitutes a direct implementation of that objective.

Education powerhouse: India is a rising power in technology, diplomacy and manufacturing. Yet, we rarely speak of our potential in global education with the same conviction. India must position itself as an emerging force in international education not by imitating the Western University model, but by drawing the world to engage with us on our terms, within our cultural, intellectual and societal landscape. India's centuries-old tradition of scholarship, from Nalanda to Shantiniketan, should not be seen as relics of the past, but as living sources of credibility in shaping a distinctive, modern learning environment. India already draws thousands of international students each year, yet the scale is negligible compared to our potential. Some claim that prioritising global education is a distraction from India's domestic needs. The truth is the opposite. Inviting the world's students, researchers and institutions to work with us here also lifts our Universities' quality, resources and ambitions. To ignore this is to allow other nations to monopolise the narrative of what "world class education" means, while we remain consumers instead of shapers of that narrative.

Man fishes 4-ft. alligator out of channel

Washington: A man used a net on a pole to make an unusual catch in the Washington Channel — a 4-foot alligator.

The dockmaster at The Wharf Marina in southwest Washington issued an alert Thursday morning that what appeared to be a juvenile alligator had been spotted in the water.

The alert sparked the curiosity of Phoenix Norwood, 23, who was determined to find the non-native reptile. He located the alligator after about an hour of searching.

Norwood kept the alligator contained in the net until animal control personnel arrived.

"If I had just let it be on its own, it would have probably swam away again, and authorities were about like 10, 15 minutes away at the time. I had to get it at that point in time. I probably should have had shoes on, though," Norwood said.

People with same name at 'Rytoberfest'

New York: Hundreds of people with the same name met in New York for the second-ever "Rytoberfest" to celebrate the moniker Ryan and attempt a Guinness World Record.

Ryan Meetup, a national organisation that organises events catering to people with the name Ryan, held Rytoberfest on Saturday at Torch and Crown in Union Square.

The event was the attempt to break Guinness World Record for the largest same name gathering (first name only), which was set by 2,325 people in 2017 at Bosnia and Herzegovina.

The organisation said hundreds of Ryans attended Saturday's event, but official numbers have not yet been released, so it is unclear whether the record was successfully broken.

VOICE OF THE READER

An eyesore amidst Dasara

Sir,

I wish to draw the urgent attention of the Mysuru City Corporation (MCC) towards a long-neglected civic issue that has turned into both a nuisance and a health hazard. For the past six months and more, the drainage manhole at CFTRI Layout, 1st Main, 6th Cross, has been overflowing continuously.

The unbearable stench, coupled with the stagnant sewage, poses not only an inconvenience but also a very real threat of disease outbreak.

With Dasara festivities now underway and the city decked up in lights and decorations, this negligence stands out as a glaring contradiction. What pride can the citizens of Mysuru take in the city's grandeur when basic sanitation is left in such a pitiable state?

Repeated complaints have only been met with excuses — the work is "approved" but "funds are not released." Such explanations are of little consolation to residents who continue to suffer often. While lakhs are being spent to showcase Mysuru's beauty to visitors, the same administration turns a blind eye to the stinking reality in its own neighbourhoods.

Visitors to my home during this festive season will go back with disappointment and disbelief, questioning how Mysuru still figures among India's "cleanest cities." Instead of being impressed by the Dasara celebrations, they will carry back unpleasant memories of overflowing drains and official apathy.

It is high time MCC, the local politicians, concerned officers realise that true civic pride does not lie in ornamental lighting or temporary beautification, but in providing citizens with the dignity of clean and liveable surroundings. As residents, we continue to live in hope that someday we will have a Mysuru that is not only celebrated during Dasara but respected year-round for its basic civic sense.

Malgudi Heritage Trail

Mysuru, Sept. 23 (KS)- Swami Vivekananda Youth Movement (SVYM) has organised Malgudi Heritage Trail, a Heritage and Literary Walk on Sept. 27 in city.

More than a conventional heritage walk, this trail is an exploration of art, memory and narrative, through three spaces across the city to recreate the world of late Writer R.K. Narayan.

The event will be inaugurated by 'Master' Manjunath, who had played the role of Swami in the TV serial 'Malgudi Days' at 12 noon on Sept 27 at Vivekananda Institute of Leadership Development (V-LEAD), KIADB Industrial Area, Hebbal.

The trail begins at V-LEAD, which has been transformed into a re-imagined Malgudi town. The trail will then move to R.K. Narayan's house at Yadavagiri, where visitors can walk through the rooms of the late Writer.

The final stop of the trail will be at The Green Hotel, where the Malgudi Cafe becomes the setting for conversation, sharing and connection over a cup of coffee and viewing a few episodes of 'Malgudi Days.'

'Rajya Sangeetha Vidwan' award conferred on Pt. M. Venkatesh Kumar

Noted Hindustani Singer Pandit M. Venkatesh Kumar being conferred with 'Rajya Sangeetha Vidwan' award during the inauguration of Dasara Cultural Programmes at Mysore Palace premises last evening. Seen are (from right) Chief Minister Siddaramaiah, MLA A.R. Krishnamurthy, Ministers K. Venkatesh and Shivaraj Tangadagi and Kannada & Culture Department Secretary M.D. Venkatesh.

Mysuru, Sept. 23 (SBD&DM)- Chief Minister Siddaramaiah conferred the prestigious 'Rajya Sangeetha Vidwan' award on renowned Hindustani Singer Pandit M. Venkatesh Kumar after inaugurating the Dasara Cultural Programmes at Mysore Palace here last evening.

Speaking on the occasion, CM Siddaramaiah said that Dasara is being celebrated for over 400 years. Stating that he feels blessed for having inaugurated Dasara 8 times, Siddaramaiah said, Pt. Venkatesh Kumar tutored under Pt. Puttaraj Gawai and achieved a lot in the field of music as a Classical Hindustani Singer.

"The State Government, considering the outstanding achievement of Pt. Venkatesh Kumar in the field of music, has conferred the prestigious 'Rajya Sangeetha Vidwan' award on him. The renowned musician should have got the award long ago. However, it is happy to note that he got the award at least now," the CM said adding that Pt. Venkatesh Kumar is a perfect example for how one can achieve big, provided he or she has the determination, dedication and commitment.

Speaking after receiving the award, Pt. Venkatesh Kumar, a native of Lakshmipura in Ballari district, said that he dedicates the award to his Guru Pandit Puttaraj Gawai, who was born blind, went on to become the eyes of everyone in the later stages of his life.

Pointing out that Puttaraj Gawai taught music to children from all sections and strata of the society irrespective of caste and religion and without any discrimination, Pt. Venkatesh Kumar recalled how his Guru sheltered him for 12 years at his Ashram (Punyashrama) and imparted education and music lessons to him. "If Venkatesh Kumar has made any name and fame across the globe, it is only because of the blessings of Guru Puttaraj Gawai," Pt. Venkatesh Kumar noted.

Memorandum to CM

MLA T.S. Srivatsa presented a memorandum to the CM seeking official celebration of the Birth Anniversary/ Memorial Day of Sangeetha Kalanidhi Mysore Vasudevacharya (May 28, 1865 - May 17, 1961), who was a contemporary of Piteelu Chowdiah and a music teacher of Jayachamaraja Wadiyar. Mysore Vasudevacharya has more than 200 music compositions to his credit, said Srivatsa and sought official celebration of the birth anniversary of the great musician.

Accepting the memorandum, the CM assured that the Government would grant funds for organising a programme in memory of Mysore Vasudevacharya.

Gang tries to extort money from senior citizens but fails

Mysuru, Sept. 23 (RK&BCT)- Senior citizens in Mysuru continue to be targeted by criminals who stage fake accidents to extort money.

In an incident that occurred on May 27, which has now come to light, two senior citizens were nearly duped by a gang near Aditya Circle on Ring Road, Dattagalli. Thanks to their presence of mind and the alertness of the public, the extortion bid was foiled.

The victims were N. Gangaraj, a resident of LIG Janathanagar T.K. (JTK) Layout Third Stage, and his friend, a retired Executive Engineer. The incident took place around 10.30 pm while they were returning home after dinner.

After dining at a hotel near Aditya Circle, the duo was heading towards the main road in their Baleno car, with Gangaraj at the wheel. As they turned onto the service road, an autorickshaw coming from the opposite direction deliberately rammed into their vehicle on the left side and came to a halt.

The autorickshaw carried five people, including the driver. Sensing foul play, Gangaraj realised the crash was intentional. The group got down, forced the two senior citizens out of the car, hurled abuses and accused them of drunken driving.

They even snatched their mobile phones and demanded Rs. 50,000 as compensation for the supposed damage to their auto.

Gangaraj calmly explained that they had only eaten dinner and had not consumed alcohol. However, the gang continued to insist they were drunk and must pay up. Pretending to comply, Gangaraj told them he would borrow money from a friend who owns a nearby hotel. In reality, he intended to alert the Police.

Meanwhile, the commotion caught the attention of passers-by, who immediately informed the Police.

A Garuda team rushed to the spot and took everyone — the five accused and the two senior citizens — to Kuvempunagar Police Station.

At the station, the gang persisted with their false accusations. However, an alcohol test cleared Gangaraj and his friend of any alcohol consumption. On reviewing CCTV footage, the Police confirmed that the autorickshaw driver was at fault and had orchestrated the collision as part of an extortion plot.

Realising their bluff had been exposed, four of the accused quietly slipped away from the Police Station, leaving only the auto driver behind. He was made to sign an undertaking and was let off with a warning.

Later, the auto driver paid Rs. 15,000 to Gangaraj to cover the cost of repairs for the damage caused by the staged accident.

Dasara security duty has stretched resources

"Senior citizens are being targeted in stretches such as Outer Ring Road, J.P. Nagar, Dattagalli, Saraswathipuram and Kuvempunagar, where many elders live and often drive alone in their cars. The criminals carefully choose locations without CCTV coverage to carry out their crimes, making it harder to track them.

We are doing our best to curb such incidents. However, with Dasara security and crowd management duties currently demanding significant manpower, our resources are stretched. Even so, our teams are actively monitoring and tracking these crimes to ensure the safety of senior citizens."

— Yogesh, Inspector, Kuvempunagar Police Station

Senior citizen outsmarts

SOM had highlighted the Dattagalli incident in its Sept. 20 report titled 'Beware: Menace of senior citizens in city terrorised by fake accidents returns.'

After reading the article, 82-year-old Kiriyamada Thammaiah of Roopanagar, Bogadi, reached out to SOM to narrate his own harrowing experience — one that could have ended very differently had he not remained calm and cautious.

The incident

Recounting the episode, Thammaiah said he was driving alone through Vijayanagar 3rd Stage around 11.30 am on Saturday, heading towards Kalidasa Road via the Ring Road. "I was passing near Canara Bank and heading towards Aishwarya Petrol Bunk when I suddenly heard a loud 'thud' from the rear left side of my car," he said.

Having read about similar scams in SOM, Thammaiah suspected foul play and deliberately chose not to stop his vehicle. "Moments later, a man on a two-wheeler came up alongside my car, shouting 'Gowdre!' loudly, trying to get my attention. I kept my composure and shouted back 'Yeno?' (meaning 'what' in Kannada) while continuing to drive at a steady speed," he recalled.

Thammaiah explained that only his driver's side window was half-open while all others were closed. "I neither slowed down nor sped up. I knew this was a trap, so I maintained the same speed and stayed calm," he said.

As he drove further, he noticed a Police vehicle ahead, amidst four to five other vehicles. "It wasn't close enough for me to call out for help, but I believe the sight of the Police vehicle and the proximity of Jayalakshmipuram Police Station might have discouraged the criminal from pursuing me further," he added.

Modus operandi

According to Thammaiah, the criminal aimed to force him to stop, check his vehicle and then create a fake accident scenario to demand money. "He didn't overtake me because his plan depended on my stepping out of my car. When I didn't stop, he eventually gave up," he said.

Later Thammaiah inspected his car and confirmed there was no damage.

Concerned that the suspect might still be lurking in the area, Thammaiah avoided returning home via Bunts Samaja Road. Instead, he took a detour through the Ring Road. "Fortunately, I reached home safely. I had credit and debit cards, and if I had been trapped or stopped my car, I could have lost a lot of money," he said.

No Police complaint has been lodged since he was not robbed.

25,000 Voices... One Chorus

Mysuru, Sept. 23 (MK&DM)- 'Kannada Nadageethe,' scripted by Poet Laureate Kuvempu, rented the air at Open Air Theatre in Manasagangothri campus this morning, as nearly 25,000 college students and staff from various Departments sang 'Nadageethe' (Jaya Bharata Jananiya Tanujathe, Jayahe Karnataka Mathe...) in chorus in celebration of 'Nadageethe-100 — Savira Swaragala Sambhrama.'

The event was organised by University of Mysore, in association with Dasara Kavigoshti Sub-Committee, in honour of Rashtrakavi Kuvempu, who had served as the Vice-Chancellor of the Varsity decades ago. Kuvempu had written Nadageethe in 1924 as a 20-year-old youth, under his then pen name 'Kishora Chandravani.' This was endorsed by Kannada Sahitya Parishat, Bengaluru, in 1971 and officially adopted as State Anthem (of two-and-half-minute duration) in 2004, marking the Birth Centenary of Kuvempu.

Speaking on the occasion, senior writer Dr. Aravind Malagatti said that Kuvempu sent out a message of peace, harmony, universal brotherhood and co-existence, in his Nadageethe.

Stating that his voice too is among thousands who rendered Nadageethe, Dr. Malagatti said, he was addressing a gathering of '50,000 eyes' which was a truly special occasion for him. "Nadageethe, the crown of Karnataka, first came to fore during a Congress Session chaired by Gandhiji in the first quarter of the last century. The State Anthem has a big tradition and everyone feels emotional whenever it is rendered or heard," he noted.

Final BOOM Test

The final round of cannon firing drill to acclimatise Dasara elephants and Mounted Police horses to the booming sounds of cannons was held successfully at the Dasara Exhibition parking lot, with all 14 Dasara elephants and 30 horses taking part, in the presence of Police and Forest Department personnel. None of the animals panicked when 21 shots were fired using 7 cannons. Meanwhile, Dasara elephant Dhananjaya will undergo weight carrying exercise on the Jumboo Savari route in a day or two.

Dasara Sports CM's Cup begins

Former wrestler Vinesh Phogat keen to train local talents

Chief Minister Siddaramaiah handing over Dasara Sports Torch to an athlete marking the inauguration of Dasara Sports Chief Minister's Cup-2025 at Chamundi Vihar Stadium in city yesterday as (from left) MLC K. Govindaraju, former freestyle wrestler Vinesh Phogat, Minister K. Venkatesh and MLA Tanveer Sait look on.

Mysuru, Sept. 23 (VVH&BS)- Former freestyle wrestler Vinesh Phogat has exuded confidence that the sporting talents of the State may bag medals in forthcoming Olympics, considering their keen interest in sports and the due encouragement by Congress Government in Karnataka.

Phogat, also a Congress MLA of Julana Constituency in Haryana, participated as chief guest during the inauguration of four-day Dasara Sports Meet Chief Minister's Cup, at Chamundi Vihar Stadium in the city yesterday.

Chief Minister Siddaramaiah, Minister for Animal Husbandry and Chamarajanagar District Incharge K. Venkatesh, MLA Tanveer Sait, Chamarajanagar MP Sunil Bose, MLCs Dr. D. Thimmaiah and K. Govindaraju and officials from the Department of Youth Empowerment and Sports, were present.

Phogat, who began her address in Kannada, by greeting the gathering with 'Namaskara Mysuru' said, 'The people of Karnataka welcome all faithfully and I am grateful for the love and affection showered on me. You can invite me for such events every year and I will train the children here without fail.'

"Today's children decide the country's future and hence it is essential to train them from their nascent days. I believe that the Congress-led State Government is providing all the adequate facilities," said Phogat.

Be it any sport, the sportspersons should surge ahead without any fear after hitting the ground. It is only through grit and determination, one can achieve the target. Apart from hard-work, the focus on smart-work to plan tactics is also very much essential, which decides the success. There will be several thousands of persons like me behind you, who will work towards lending cooperation to carve a niche career, said Phogat, in her advice to the budding sportspersons.

"I am confident that the Government has devised many schemes to encourage sportspersons. Chief Minister Siddaramaiah should resolve for the overall development of athletes. More number of sportspersons from the State should get selected to national and international level sports meets and bring laurels to the State and the country," hoped Phogat.

Rs. 6 cr. for Olympians

CM Siddaramaiah reiterated that the sportspersons from the State, who win medals in Olympics henceforth, will be receiving a cash reward of Rs. 6 crore from the State Government.

"The Government is wholly encouraging sportspersons, with a financial assistance of Rs. 10 lakh for 60 each sportspersons to sharpen their nuances for the next Olympics. Two percent quota in Government jobs and three percent quota in Police jobs has been announced for successful sportspersons," he said.

Announcing further plans for Chamundi Vihar Stadium, he said, the gallery and swimming pool will be covered with tensile membrane roof and football ground shall be built, at an estimated cost of Rs. 20.78 crore. Sportspersons should make judicious use of the facility, as it is important to develop sportsmanship over win and loss, that is common in sports.

Makkala Dasara Kalathon...

School children dressed in various attires (costumes of Huli Vesha, Maragalu Kunita, Puja Kunita, Onake Obavva, Jhansi Rani Lakshmi Bai) performing in Makkala Dasara Kalathon procession organised by Women and Children Dasara Sub-Committee in front of Mysore Palace North Gate this morning.

High Court stays order capping movie ticket prices at Rs. 200

Bengaluru, Sept. 23 (Agencies) - The Karnataka High Court has stayed, until further orders, the implementation of the Karnataka Cinemas (Regulation) (Amendment) Rules, 2025, which capped movie ticket prices at Rs. 200.

Justice Ravi V. Hosmani passed the interim order on petitions filed by multiplex owners and movie producers challenging the State Government's decision.

During hearings, the Multiplex Association of India (MAI), represented by Senior Advocate Udaya Holla, argued that the Rs. 200 cap on film ticket prices was arbitrary. He contended that if customers wished to pay more for luxury cinema experiences, they should have that choice. Film exhibitors should have the freedom to set prices for offering such luxury services, he added.

He also recounted that a similar State-imposed cap on movie ticket prices from 7 years ago was withdrawn after it was challenged in Court. Holla submitted that such a cap on movie ticket prices would severely affect the business of theatre owners.

The petitioners contended that the cap on ticket prices could significantly impact the industry's revenue, especially multiplexes, which rely on flexible pricing to balance operational costs.

Rangoli art wins hearts

Mysuru, Sept. 23 (MTY&TRR)- K.R. MLA T.S. Srivatsa inaugurated Dasara Rangoli contest organised by the Women and Children's Dasara Sub-Committee, in front of Mysore Palace this morning.

Speaking after inaugurating the event, MLA Srivatsa welcomed about 150 women participants hailing from different parts of the State, who were enthusiastic to showcase their talent.

"A variety of cultural programmes are being organised as part of this year's Dasara and colourful Rangoli contest has added more glitter to the festivities," Srivatsa added.

T.D. Shweta from Nanjangud drew a Rangoli titled 'Don't Be Addicted' with the aim of weaning away children from the excessive use of cell phone, attracting the attention of onlookers.

Spandana from Mysuru, in her Rangoli, depicted a woman with lamp, symbolising the popularity of State Government's 'Gruha Jyothi' guarantee scheme, under which 200 units of power is supplied for free to households.

While Nirmala from Tumakuru drew a Rangoli of Goddess Chamundeshwari riding a Tiger, Lakshmi from Davangere highlighted the message 'Being proud to be born as a woman.' Sunita from Vijayanagar showcased her artistic skills by drawing Nandi and Shivalinga, with all devotion.

Several women artists had deftly drawn colourful Rangolis of Chamundi Hill, Ganesha in OM symbol, emblem of erstwhile princely State of Mysore Gandabherunda, Peacock, Dasara Elephant, Lord Balakrishna and others.

Dasara Sub-Committee Deputy Special Officer B.M. Savitha, Working President of the Sub-Committee B. Basavaraju, juries of the contest Meenakshi Ravikumar, District President of Stree Shakti Federation Premakumari, Secretary of Dasara Sub-Committee Charita and members of the Sub-Committee were present.

Joyalukkas announces 'Biggest Jewellery Sale of the Year'

Mysuru, Sept. 23- Joyalukkas, world's favourite jeweller, has announced the return of its most anticipated shopping event, "The Biggest Jewellery Sale of the Year."

For a limited period until Oct.5, customers will get to enjoy an exceptional flat 50% off on making charges across a spectacular range of gold, cut and uncut diamonds, platinum, silver and precious stone jewellery.

With a curated portfolio of over a million unique designs, Joyalukkas blends traditional elegance with global influences, from Indian classics to contemporary Italian, Turkish and ethno-modern styles, crafted with precision and artistry.

Dr. Joy Alukkas, Chairman of Joyalukkas Group, announced the sale and said, "Our goal has always been to offer every customer a truly joyful jewellery experience. With the Biggest Jewellery Sale of the Year, we're delighted to offer unmatched value, quality and design variety to our patrons." The 'Biggest Jewellery Sale of the Year' is valid up to Oct. 5 across all Joyalukkas showrooms.

Mall of Mysore unveils Grand Dasara Shopping Festival

Mysuru, Sept.23- The festive spirit of Dasara comes alive at Mall of Mysore, as the city's most vibrant shopping destination announces its Dasara Shopping Festival from Sept.17 to Oct. 19.

With a series of exciting activities, cultural attractions and exclusive rewards, the festival promises to bring together shopping, celebration and entertainment for families across Mysuru.

Shoppers can look forward to a host of festive-themed activities, which are as follows:

Dasara Decor (Sept.17 - Oct. 3): Mesmerising festive decorations to light up the Mall in true royal style.

Sweet Expo (Sept.22 - Oct. 5): A delightful showcase of traditional and modern sweets to satisfy every sweet tooth.

Mall Lighting (Sept. 22 - Oct.3): Witness the Mall glowing in grand illumination to capture the essence of Dasara celebrations.

Shop & Win (Sept.22 - Oct. 2): Assured gifts await shoppers! Spend Rs. 5,000 and win a wireless neckband, shop for Rs. 15,000 and win a vacuum mug, or shop for Rs. 30,000 to take home a premium sound bar.

Flea Market (Sept.22 - Oct.3): A unique shopping experience featuring local crafts, fashion and lifestyle products.

Burger Eating Competition (Oct.19): A fun-filled challenge for food-lovers to showcase their competitive spirit.

"This year's festival theme 'Shopping Meets Celebration' blends Mysuru's cultural heritage with modern retail experiences, making Mall of Mysore the one-stop destination for festive shopping, entertainment and family outings. Mysureans hold Dasara close to their hearts and at Mall of Mysore, we have curated a line-up of activities and offers that reflect the spirit of joy, tradition and togetherness," said Sandeep Kumar, Vice-President, Mall of Mysore.

Star Pups

ADOPT US...

Maya

Tara

Mysuru, Sept. 23 (KS)- Tara and Maya, both 1.5-month-old pups, which are de-wormed and vaccinated at People For Animals (PFA) in city, are up for adoption.

Tara and Maya, which were found abandoned by the roadside, frightened and helpless were rescued and brought to PFA Mysuru, where they are now safe and cared for.

They are playful, gentle, eager to bond and they now need forever homes.

PFA Mysuru has urged the concerned public to come forward and adopt Tara and Maya — and to consider adoption as a way to address the growing crisis of abandoned and homeless dogs.
